

Contribution Levels for OPEF's Haunted High

This exciting, scary event will bring thousands of people to Oconomowoc during October. Proceeds go to the General Fund of the Oconomowoc Public Education Foundation. This provides grants for teachers to explore and initiate innovative and expansive educational opportunities for the students of the Oconomowoc area. OPEF's goal is to give 20 or more grants this year. But there are many scary expenses (materials, food, printing, merchandise, lighting, equipment, security, etc.). Here's how businesses and individuals may contribute.

Full Event Sponsor (e.g. OPEF presents Haunted High sponsored by X): $7,000 - 10,000. Early commitment ensures inclusion in printed materials, i.e. posters. Exclusivity, first right of refusal next year, many exposure and visibility opportunities.

Construction Zone Sponsors: $ 2,000 - $4,000 to defray many of the building expenses

Cops On Hand Sponsor: $ 1,000 - $3,000 to employ deputies at all event nights

Safety Sponsor: $ 1,000 - $2,000 for first aid supplies and an EMT each night

Food Sponsor: Donate food for resale. – “Name” the goodie area

$500 - $999: Significant Spooks

$100 - $499: Ghostly Givers

Under $100 Jack-O-Lantern Donors

Major sponsors will receive many benefits: exposure (posters, handouts, website, press releases), signage at The Haunted School, tickets and more. These partnerships will be personally discussed with interested parties by the OPEF Board President or the Haunted School Project Manager.
